Moody's upgrades outlook on IDBI Bank to positive on recapitalisation

- Moody's Investors Service today affirmed the long-term local and foreign currency bank deposit rating of IDBI Bank at B1 and changed the outlook to positive from stable.
- The rating agency also affirmed the state-run lender and its DIFC branch's long-term foreign currency senior unsecured debt rating at B1 and changed the outlook to positive.
- The positive outlook also factors in the rating agency's view on the expected evolution of the bank's balance sheet, including a stabilization in asset quality and continued stable funding and liquidity positions.
- Under the recapitalisation plan, the bank will get Rs 7,881 crore in new capital by March.
- The rating agency said this capital infusion will increase the common equity tier 1 (CET1) ratio for the bank to about 9.8 per cent based on the risk weighted assets as of December 2017.
- The bank will continue to report losses over the next few quarters on account of high provisioning charges, eroding this capital level.
- The rating agency expects that the CET1 ratio as of March 2019 will meet the minimum Basel III capital needs.
