Indian banks, financial institutions sign agreement to speed up bad loan resolution

- Indian banks and financial institutions signed an inter-creditor agreement on July 23, 2018 to fast-track the resolution of stressed assets of Rs 500 crore or above that are under consortium lending.
- The ICA was prepared in accordance to the recommendations of the Sunil Mehta Committee and under the aegis of Indian Banks' Association (IBA). It is a part of Project Sashakt, which aims to strengthen the credit capacity, credit culture and credit portfolio of public sector banks.
- The agreement has been approved by boards of respective lenders.
- The ICA has been signed by 22 public sector banks including SBI, PNB and India Post Payments Bank, 19 private sector banks and 32 foreign banks.
- The signatories also included 12 major financial institutions such as Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC), HUDCO, PFC, and REC.
- Under the pact, each resolution plan will be submitted by the lead lender to an Overseeing Committee.
- The lead lender, the lender with the highest exposure, shall be authorised to formulate the resolution plan, which shall be presented to the lenders for their approval.
- Under the deal, the decision making will be by way of approval of 'majority lenders'- those with 66 per cent share in the aggregate exposure.
- Once a resolution plan is approved by the majority lenders, it will be binding on all the lenders that are a party to the ICA.

Cash-on-delivery deals by e-commerce firms not authorised, says RBI

- Cash-on-delivery (CoD) method of payment option provided by online retailers such as Flipkart and Amazon may be a regulatory grey area as per the Reserve Bank of India's (RBI's) response to a Right to Information (RTI) query, according to a report in The Economic Times.
- The RBI, in a response to an RTI query, said a collection of payment from platforms such as Amazon and Flipkart are not authorised.
- "Aggregators/payment intermediaries like Amazon and Flipkart are not authorised under Section 8 of the PSS (Payments and Settlements Systems) Act, 2007," the apex bank said in its response to the query filed by Dharmendra Kumar of India FDI Watch.
- The RTI query asked the RBI to confirm if cash-on-delivery payment collection and disbursement to e-commerce merchants or marketplaces such as Flipkart and Amazon are authorised under the Payments and Settlements Systems Act, 2007.

India, Rwanda sign 8 agreements

- India and Rwanda signed eight agreements on July 23, 2018 following delegation-level talks between Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Rwandan President Paul Kagame in Kigali, the capital city of Rwanda.
- Modi and Kagame held wide-ranging talks and discussed a host of measures to boost bilateral strategic ties. Addressing a joint press conference, Prime Minister Modi assured Rwanda that India will continue to back the African country's development. Rwanda President said PM Modi's visit represents a milestone between the two nations.
- Modi has become the first Indian Prime Minister to visit Rwanda when he landed in Kigali on the first leg of his three-nation tour to Africa. The Rwandan President personally received Modi at the airport.

Key Highlights

- The agreements were signed in the fields of defence, trade, agriculture, leather and allied products and dairy.
- India also extended two lines of credit (LoCs) worth $200 million to Rwanda:
 - For the development of industrial parks and Kigali Special Economic Zone
 - For the development of three agricultural projects in Rwanda

Prime Minister Narendra Modi also announced the opening of the first Indian diplomatic mission in the East African nation.

The move will not only establish communication between the governments of the two countries but also enable facilities for consular, passport and visa.

Besides this, a task force will be set up between the two countries to enable digital learning mediums for children.

Iran pips Saudi Arabia to become India's second largest oil supplier

- Amidst escalating American rhetoric against Iran and a fast approaching November deadline for implementation of US oil sanctions against the country, India's Petroleum minister Dharmendra Pradhan disclosed in Parliament on Monday that Iran had ousted Saudi Arabia as India's second largest oil supplier during the April-June period of this year.
- The disclosure comes even as sources say the Indian government has instructed oil public sector undertakings (PSU) to be ready for a shortfall in Iranian supplies. US sanctions are set to rollout in early November and the global economic giant has warned that countries that do not reduce Iranian imports to zero will face sanctions too.
- According to data submitted in response to a series of questions on how the government would deal with supply shortfalls, Indian oil PSUs imported 5.67 million tonnes of crude oil from Iran for Rs 19,978.46 crore ($2.95 billion) during the first three months of the current fiscal year.
