- A few returns of May 2020, which would have in any case got recorded in June 2020, will get documented during initial not many long periods of July 2020, the Ministry included.
- Nitty gritty separation for GST assortments brought up in different states demonstrated that most states recorded a decrease in GST assortments in June. Be that as it may, states, for example, Punjab, Chhattisgarh, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar, Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Karnataka alongside north eastern conditions of Assam, Sikkim, Manipur, Mizoram, Tripura, Nagaland and Arunachal Pradesh recorded development in GST assortments in June over a year ago.

Reasons for Decline:

- The incomes during the money related year has been affected due to COVID-19,
- Right off the bat because of the financial effect of the pandemic,
- Also because of the relaxations given by the Government in recording of profits and installment of charges because of the pandemic.
- Nonetheless, figures of recent months show recuperation in GST incomes.
- States like Punjab, Chhattisgarh, Madhya Pradesh, Bihar, Assam, Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Karnataka saw development in assortment in June over a year ago.
- North Eastern states like Sikkim, Manipur, Mizoram, Tripura, Nagaland, Arunachal Pradesh too saw Increase in income during the month.

- Pratik Jain, Partner and Leader, Indirect Tax, PwC India, stated: "June assortments look noteworthy, practically 46% higher than May, which thusly was 92% higher than April. While the whole assortment doesn't really identify with exchanges in May (the same number of organizations would have benefited the office recently installment for prior months, without intrigue or lower intrigue), the lightness shows that business is getting. The Government would trust that this pattern proceeds."
- "With this deficit and related plunge in income for states also, the Center's commitments to remunerate States for any shortage is a zone of concern and this being additionally extended with quieted pay cess assortments," Jain included.
- Deloitte India Partner M S Manu said the June income numbers show that a restoration is in progress and assortments will improve in the coming months.
- "In June some of bigger delivering states have indicated an expansion in assortments or stable incomes contrasted with a year ago while a portion of the expending states have demonstrated a decay," Mani included.

Revenue Tend to be Key:

- GST assortment on a month-on-month premise has, be that as it may, demonstrated a recuperation, incompletely because of pickup in monetary movement and past due installments from earlier months. Income pattern in coming months will be vital for the administration to have the option to meet its consumption alongside pay installments to states.
